

Madras Agricultural Journal

Partner with Madras Agric .J

1. In the year 2012, the Secretary signed an agreement with EBSCO Host, USA World's Leading Database provider for more than 10,000 Journals.
2. The EBSCO offered to partner with MAJ, mainly due to the century old service of MAJ to the farming community.
3. Currently, the Journal receives around 250 articles yearly of which around 150 are published. As compared to the early years, the journal has recorded three fold increases in the number of articles received for publication.
